The unknown suspect wore a thin moustache and/or a jaw line beard. He may wear a hoop earring in his left ear and has a "widow's peak" hairline. He spoke broken English. The suspect also may ride a 10-speed, dark metallic, English Racer-type bicycle with curved white handlebars.

At the time of the last attack, the unknown suspect wore a matching mesh sleeveless basketball shirt and short, light blue in color, with white stripes on the sides and white edging on the shirt. He wore a gold chain with a cross pendant around his neck. He also has scars, possibly from burns or stab wounds, on his upper left chest, shoulder, and arm.

CAUTION

An unknown male suspect is wanted in connection with the attack and rape of a female jogger in the Fairmount Park section of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This attack took place on April 30, 2003. Then, on July 13, 2003, the body of another female was found in the Fairmount Park section of Philadelphia. This female had been raped and murdered. She was last seen jogging in the area. On October 25, 2003, at approximately 6:30 p.m. in the same area as the two previous assaults, another female jogger was attacked and stabbed multiple times with a knife. She survived her wounds. Additionally, on August 11, 2007, a woman who was walking in Philadelphia's Pennypack Park was also attacked.

Law enforcement investigation in the Philadelphia area has led police to link all of these attacks to each other.

If you have any information concerning this person, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
